

Enemy for Me

Blind Channel

(You won't break me!)

OK J
One way to do it
You did it wrong
You already blew it
What's taking so long?
Like a monkey you're stupid
Fuckn' King Kong
Now I'm gonna lose it
I wrote you a song

Bring it if you think you're though
'Cause lately I've just had enough
I ain't' even bluffing when I say that nothing
Is standing between you and your fucking coffin

Heard you're scary
Well scare me
Come, dare me
But oh please spare me
From your lecture, you're under pressure
And I see through you like Hannibal Lecter
I'm a collector of pieces of shit
Cut you to bits, you miserable prick
Kick you to the ditch, and spit on you bitch
And see what you're gonna do about it
Hit it

I'm not joking
You're not laughing
Excuses won't change anything
So now I see
You're just an enemy
Enemy for me

Yo! Remember me?
It's me, NC, long time no see
Well it should've been longer
Wanna bang your chest to see who is stronger?
You gave me a tap on the shoulder
You made me a soldier
Yeah you might be older but I know you're a slower
You fucking controller
The way the way you control her
This shit isn't over 'til I say it's over
Man, you're going nowhere
Come out, come out wherever you are
Go on, go on and tear me apart
You're making me ill
I'm in for the kill
On top of the hill
You're Catherine and I'm Buffalo Bill
That's right motherfucker I know where you live

I'm not joking
Excuses won't change anything
So now I see
You're just an enemy
Enemy for me

Bring it if you think you though
'Cause I've had enough
(Can you hear me now?)
I said can you hear me now?

I'm not joking
You're not laughing
Excuses won't change anything
So now I see
Enemy for me
Enemy, enemy for me
