

Feel Nothing

Blind Channel

I'm not sad, I feel nothing
I'm not sad, I feel nothing

I'm not sad, I feel nothing
I'm silent, I'm done talking
Don't come here, please, don't touch me
Yeah
Fake smiles for fake people
These stage lights can break people
There's true love and true evil
You see

I felt too much in what felt like forever
But it was gone in a second
Couldn't take another second

This loving heart no longer beats
These caring lungs no longer breathe
And it's amazing how good it feels
I feel nothing at all, no nothing at all
Everybody can watch me fall
But I'm afraid I don't care at all
It's kinda scary how good it feels
To feel nothing at all, no nothing, nothing

I'm not sad, I feel nothing
I'm not sad, I feel nothing

Are we people or just plastic
So stupid and sarcastic
Passive or on acid
Please, someone tell me why I'm so
Full of myself and my emptiness
I can't fill this hole
Even though I'm living in the middle where the party's at
I feel so alone
Go about a thousand friends more followers
But I'm on my own
Don't you know, don't you know?

This loving heart no longer beats
These caring lungs no longer breathe
And it's amazing how good it feels
I feel nothing at all, no nothing at all
Everybody can watch me fall
But I'm afraid I don't care at all
It's kinda scary how good it feels
To feel nothing at all, no nothing, nothing

I'm not sad, I feel nothing
I'm not sad, I feel nothing
I'm not sad, I feel nothing

Please someone tell me why
I felt too much in what felt like forever
Yeah I felt too much, but it was gone in a second
I felt too much in what felt like forever

Don't you know, don't you know?

This loving heart no longer beats
These caring lungs no longer breathe

I feel nothing at all, no nothing at all
Everybody can watch me fall
But I'm afraid I don't care at all
It's kinda scary how good it feels
To feel nothing at all, no nothing, nothing
