

Gun

Blind Channel

(This is the meanest shit I've ever done)

Gun

Reload!

Time to burn some bitches

Oops, I mean bridges

Call 911 'cause lot of people gonna need stitches

Gotta level up

'Cause this time it's personal

Gotta use all of my arsenal

I'mma start with this one

A shout-out to some snakes and their slaves and fake friends

I swear to God if I ever see your ugly faces again

I'll fuckin' stab 'em, and not only with a pen

The devil runs from hell when NC's getting in

I'mma

Reload!

You think I'm gonna grow up and start behaving?

Reload!

From now on I'mma say what comes to mind

I just wrote a song to hurt someone

Let's see who's laughing when I'm done

Reload!

That crazy kid in the neighbourhood is pointing at you

I'm like a

I'm done playing nice

Revos and bloodbros were humble and kind

No more filters I'mma say what I like, like:

I'm sick of people saying: "let go of the hate, boy!"

Don't you fucking' know what I'm made of?

Look what you've done

Let's have some fun

Look what you've done

Now I'mma

Reload!

You think I'm gonna grow up and start behaving?

Reload!

From now on I'mma say what comes to mind

I just wrote a song to hurt someone

Let's see who's laughing when I'm done

Reload!

That crazy kid in the neighbourhood is pointing at you

I'm like a

Gun

Gun

I said it in bullet

I said it in trigger

Violent pop getting bigger and bigger

I see a gun when I look in the mirror

You want some smoke?

NC delivers
Sick of these rappers who act like they're winners
As long as I'm around they're getting silver
Making an album like Jack the Ripper
All killer no filler
My haters never let me down like my liver
Gimme some liquor
I'm a miracle, a prodigy
This is lyrical honesty
I'm a fuck-up yet you all in love with me
As far as I can see everyone's an enemy
I get a boner every time you're dissin' me
This is me
So dear listener, if you get offended easily, stop listening
