

Lost & Bleeding

Blind Channel

A tempest in my mind, a storm that won't subside
Thinking of running or hiding, I can't decide
Somebody sentence me to life and get me through the night
In me that darkness is rising, I gotta fight it, I'm

(On) supposed to know (my) it's hollow ground (own)
Tonight I'll be making my demons proud, I'm
(All) on my way out (a-) without a doubt (lone)
Inside me the silence judging the sound

I'm stuck in my head and I won't stop bleeding
Without additional meaning no I can't live this
Fear of myself and it's slow that I'm screaming
And all my feelings like needles, somebody help

What about a crown of thoughts breaking broken hearts
Don't take me lightly, I'm fighting with all I got I'ma write this with my blood, I know that I can't give up
Thunder inside me igniting, here comes the lightning now

On my own
Tonight I'll be making my demons proud, I'm
All alone
Inside me the silence judging the sound

I'm stuck in my head and I won't stop bleeding
Without additional meaning no I can't live this
Fear of myself and it's slow that I'm screaming
And all my feelings like needles, somebody help
I'm haunted by my demons and my own decay
Falling through the shadows and I can't escape
I'm stuck in my head and I'm lost and bleeding
Lost and bleeding

Lost and bleeding
Somebody get me outta my
Somebody get me outta my head

I'm stuck in my head and I won't stop bleeding
Without additional meaning no I can't live this
Fear of myself and it's slow that I'm screaming
And all my feelings like needles, somebody help
I'm haunted by my demons and my own decay
Falling through the shadows and I can't escape
I'm stuck in my head and I'm lost and bleeding
