

My Heart Is a Hurricane

Blind Channel

(Watch out, my heart is a hurricane, baby!)
It's a hurricane!

You should know
I'm only happy when it rains
I tell myself its just a phase
When I'm on my own

I know I can live and die alone
And it's too late to start again
In another life will we meet again?

Watch out, my heart is a hurricane, baby
I will blow you away
It's not your job to save me
When I find my way
Watch out, my heart is a hurricane!
It's a hurricane!

I've been chasing a life of meaning
Tryna leave out every feeling
I'm keeping my eyes on the prize 'cuz I'm not in real life
I don't wanna doubt in a dream
But should I doubt in a memory of Living a dream with no one to share it with
I'm on my own!

I know I can live and die alone
Say it's too late to start again
In another life will we meet again?

Watch out, my heart is a hurricane, baby
I will blow you away
It's not your job to save me
When I find my way
Watch out, my heart is a hurricane!
It's a hurricane!

I'm done with the past, it's no more than a ghost
I'm not coming back, but tomorrow's unknown
I'm used to this pain, but what hurts me the most
Is knowing I'm wrong when I'm letting you go

I'm done with the past, it's no more than a ghost
I'm not coming back, but tomorrow's unknown
I'm used to this pain, but what hurts me the most
Is knowing I'm wrong when I'm letting you go

Is it too late to start again?
Say it's too late to start again
(Tell me, tell me, baby)
In a another life will we meet again?

Watch out, my heart is a hurricane, baby
I will blow you away
It's not your job to save me
When I find my way

Watch out, my heart is a hurricane!
It's a hurricane!
