

Pitfall

Blind Channel

Welcome to the pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall
Welcome to the pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall

Bruises on my shoulders
'Cause I've been tackled by life as it passes by
I have a house but I'm homeless
It's like these maggots trying to suck me dry

That is why I'm so annoyed
Unemployed
Blazing joints with my boys
Made a choice
Made some noise
Man you know I've gotta point
Banging doors
Hittin' floors
Fighting everyone else's wars
Making songs
Hanging on
Feel the force now sing the chorus

This life will let you down in a moment
Before you black out, you'll know that you're falling
Into another
(Pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall)
So when it hits you're gonna miss your mommy
You can't stay down cause tomorrows keep coming
It's just another
(Pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall)

Monday: get up
Tuesday: shut up
But every motherfucking day you're fed up
Wednesday: what up
Thursday: come on
And finally when you reach Friday you're fucked up

Somewhere stuck in the system
A name and a number and the list goes on and on
But now I'm done being the victim
And all I can hear is a battle song

Monday: get up
Tuesday: shut up
But every motherfucking day you're fed up
Man, I'm too old for this shit
Wednesday: what up
Thursday: come on
And finally when you reach Friday you're fucked up
Give me a fucking break
Time for some warfare

This life will let you down in a moment
Before you black out, you'll know that you're falling
Into another
(Pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall)
So when it hits you're gonna miss your mommy

You can't stay down cause tomorrows keep coming
So go and climb up to another fuckin' morning
You know this life sucks but at least it ain't boring

Time for some warfare
Time for some warfare

This life will let you down in a moment
Let you down in a moment
Life will let you down in a moment
Before you black out, you'll know that you're falling
(Pitfall, pitfall, pitfall, pitfall)

So when it hits you're gonna miss your mommy
You can't stay down cause tomorrows keep coming
So go and climb up to another fuckin' morning
You know this life sucks but at least it ain't boring
