

Scream

Blind Channel

My hero, where did you go?
You still echo deep inside my bones
Still in denial, too much is missing
I hate that it's so final
Don't have nobody to blame
The tears will dry
Tomorrow's another day
Let's get out in quiet

You get a choice to those who wanted to bleed
You gave a voice to those who wanted to scream
To scream
To scream
Even with all your demons
We knew they were real
But all of those demons were part of the deal
The deal

My hero, where did you go?
I won't let go, not when there's still hope
The walls come down, I wanna shout out the words
Just won't come out under the weight of the world
The empty room, I never thought it so violent
I hate this silence

You gave a choice to those who wanted to bleed
You gave a voice to those who wanted to scream
To scream
To scream
Even with all, knew your demons
We knew they were real
But all of those demons were part of the deal
The deal
The deal

Scream for the broken
Scream for yourself
Break through the silence
Scream for her

Look, I'm not a shrink, no therapist
But I've been thinking when I promise you this Together we can get over this
So make it stop sinking into this mist
So please stay strong for me
And I'll do my best to stay strong for you
'Cuz for your whole life you've been treated so wrong
In this game of love you're not alone

You gave a choice to those who wanted to bleed
You gave a voice to those who wanted to scream
To scream
To scream
But all of those demons were part of the deal
The deal

The deal

You gave a choice, you gave everything

You gave a voice to those who wanted to scream

To scream

To scream
