

What's Wrong

Blind Channel

(What's wrong, do I wanna know?)

Hell exists
At 3 a.m. when I'm here without you
I can't win and I don't want to lose
Come, I won't resist
'Cause when the drugs kick in I forget all about you
I'm thinking back to the times I told you

I'm okay
No I'm not
Talk to me
Please stop
Shut up
'Cause all your voices manipulate me
I'm still breathing
I should not give in
But it's all the same
Still okay
Not today
Look at me
Look away
'Cause all your faces humiliate me
And I really don't want to give up but I feel like

I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?
I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?

Voices, vo-vo-voices, vo-vo-voices
What's wrong, do I wanna know?

No exit
Just a maze made out of awkward silence
And every time I try to fight it
I'm falling
I take a hike down to the heart of darkness
That's what I call home
That's where my heart is

Walk away
I'm insane
I'm afraid
Please stay
Save me
Before my thought betray me
I'm not crazy, I'm not

I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?
I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?

What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's wrong? What's wrong?

What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?
What's wrong, do I wanna know?

Voices, vo-vo-voices, vo-vo-voices
I really don't want to give up but I feel like

I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?
I gave up a long time ago
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
What's left if I let you go?

I'm okay
No I'm not
Talk to me
Please stop
Voices, vo-vo-voices
Manipulate me
I'm still breathing
I should not give in
Voices, vo-vo-voices
What's wrong, do I wanna know?
Humiliate me
Voices, vo-vo-voices, vo-vo-voices
