

Destiny

Blind Guardian

I will return
I will be your destiny
I will weave your destiny
I will weave your destiny

It's not choice, nor is it chance
Fate's completely in my hands

I claim your love, yet, thoughts conspire
My icicle reign, it soon covers all pain
As long as you are mine
Pray, breathe in my absolution

Take a look at yourself
Desperate cries
Don't mind her
Take a look at yourself
It's sliding away
No feelings, no desire
No depths of sorrow
Find cold relief
Thus, you've made a promise
Committed your soul

Here in the shadows of dead winter
The Ice Maiden's calling you

Frozen
Your heart is frozen
Frozen
This is your destiny

It draws, it grows, it lasts
That's when your frozen soul will rise (No lies, no fear, no loss)
Your destiny
This is your destiny
My love is total
You must come and you must find me
Now break the ice
But all the while I weave your destiny

Breathe in
Don't fear its chill and
Let the cold winds in
Breathe in
The chasm's drawing
Embrace its mystery

Once you drown in water
You soon cross the border
No other way into my realm
The circle's complete when you'll lie with me
You better admit, commit yourself
That's how it's been
For you must surrender
Your ring it shall be

Leave the freezing cold
Terror of your world

Frozen
That's why you come to me boy
The Ice Maiden's harvest's ripe
Time to bow down then hand it to me
I shape your destiny

No lies, no fear, no loss
I'll let your frozen spirit shine
Your destiny
My love's eternal
It's the creeping one, the one that can't be denied
I will be thine
Your Ice Maiden dressed in white

It's not as cruel as it may seem
The oath must be redeemed
Love is agony
My passion is freezing
We're melted together
You're mine forever
We're one
Bonded for all time
'Cause you are my destiny, destiny, destiny

The deal is done
I've kissed you thrice
My chosen one

Now come and see
You are my destiny

Your bride, your wife, your death
Arise my chosen one, arise (No life, no fear, no loss)
Your destiny
This is your destiny
My love's immortal
You're most probably aware
By now it is time, you will be mine
I'm your maiden, hold me tight

It's irony, it's misery
The winter blossom cries
You're cold as ice
The widow sighs
Icy winds are howling
It's all gone
You don't give me chills
You don't make me feel
You don't make me see
You don't make me freeze
You don't set me free
