

Let It Be No More

Blind Guardian

Sad words cannot describe
The black hole inside us
Absorbing the numb feeling
The empty room
My hollow shrine
What will remain?
Who's left behind?

Without a sound they disappeared
Without a sound God interfered
We all witnessed the rapture
And we mourn for those who got lost in the great divide
The great divide

We're not burning
We slowly rot
Then fade away
The grief remains

Let it be no more
May it be undone
Let it be no more
Things will stay the same
Stay the same
No change
Make me feel

Since Heaven doesn't care
We are doomed to stay here
(Get over it)
Keep on waiting
Up on your roofs to meet the end
Feel purified, feel proof inside
Believe in the word
(Get over it)
That's why you're burning
To be the spark
To be the flame
To be redeemed

Let it be no more
May it be undone
Let it be no more
Oh, where have they gone?
Have they gone?
Let me know
Let me see

Just comfort your mind
Still confidence lies bleeding
While things proceed there'll be no change

Something must be wrong
Something must be wrong

Let it be no more
May it be undone

Let it be no more
For the chosen ones
Chosen ones
Are free
Let it be
