

Rabbit Foot Blues

Blind Lemon Jefferson

Blues jumped a rabbit, run him one solid mile
Blues jumped a rabbit, run him one solid mile
That rabbit set down, cried like a natural child

Well it seem like you're hungry, honey come and lunch with me
Seem like you're hungry, honey come and lunch with me I'm gonna stop these nice-lookin' women from worryin' me

I have Uneeda biscuits gal and a half a pint o' gin
Some Uneeda biscuits gal and a half a pint o' gin
The gin is mighty fine but them biscuits are a little too thin

Baby tell me something 'bout the meatless and wheatless days
I wanna know about the meatless and wheatless days
This not being my home, I don't think I could stay

Guitar break

That dried corn flour, indeed I declare it was strong Well that dried corn flour, indeed I declare it was strong People feedin' me cornbread, I just can't stick around long

Got an airplane, baby, now we're gonna get us a submarine
An airplane, now we're gonna get us a submarine Gonna get that Kaiser and we'll be seldom seen

Mmmm-mmm, hitch me to your buggy, mama, drive me like a mule
Hitch me to your buggy and drive me like a mule
The reason I'm goin' home with you sugar, I ain't [much hard to be fooled]