

Some have and some don't
I've been both, I've been bought and sold
Nothing is worth more than a need
No, we're not just the miles we walk
We're not just the ways we talk
We have the same fire to feed

Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you
And share every place that we know
Hola, hello I'm gonna welcome you
Yes, you are part of my home
Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you

Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you

Lines we've drawn have made us sick
Kept us apart, kept us locked in
What do we really think needs to be saved?
Cause some will give and some will hate
I don't want to be one that sits and waits
I want to be on the side that is brave

Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you
Share every place that we know
Hola, hello I'm gonna welcome you
Yes, you are part of my home
Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you
Hola, hello I'm gonna walk with you
Yes you are part of my home
Yes you are part of my home
