

Escape The Past

Blind Witness

My spirit is now too weak to escape the past.
All my souvenirs of you still remain the sacrifice that I did f or you.
I try to forget every moment I spent with you.
My spirit is now too weak to escape the past.
All my souvenirs of you still remain the sacrifice that I did f or you.
I try to forget every moment I spent with you.
You're engraved in me.
Now, I'm requesting you give me he chances to come back on the right way.
The way I should keep.
I try to forget every moment I spent with you.
You're engraved in me.
You're engraved in me.
