

Don't Mean Anything

Blink-182

Dearest mom
I'm always here, no matter how far gone
I'm alright without you
And late at night
A million thoughts are caught up in my tree
You're alright without me

It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
And it's a long way back to the middle of the road
Fighting our way back home
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all

Dear old dad
I'm the one and only son you never had
I'll be fine without you
Late at night
I hear you grab your coat and your car keys
You'll be fine without me
No!

It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
And it's a long way back to the middle of the road
Fighting our way back home
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all

When we all fall to the surface sometimes
And we all fall back where we belong
And we all fall to the surface sometimes
And we all fall back where we belong

It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
And it's a long way back to the middle of the road
Fighting our way back home
It don't mean, it don't mean
It don't mean anything at all
