Bliss n Eso

Yo
Wherever you are
Yo, I'ma be there
Whenever you need me
You better believe me, just put on a pair
Of headphones, let's go deep in our zone
Off to a place where those people don't know
No judgement, fuck them, they don't know nothing
We are connected and they cannot touch it

And that's why I love it
All the bullshit, we're above it
And that's gangster and we're love sick
On a level that they just can't fuck with
But I see that they get you down
They make it hard for you to hold your head up proud
But I hope, when I bust this verse
We gon' feel like we're the only ones on earth
Lost in the madness
Is it all an illusion?
Do we only exist in the music?
Make you think about it
Nah man, this is real magic
Turn it up and let me feel that shit
Yo, if it's real magic
Turn it up and let me feel that shit

I'll always be there for you
Oooooooh
Even when you are blue
Oooooooh
I'll always be there for you
Oooooooh
Even when you are blue
Oooooooh

One day I got a text from a number
That I didn't recognise
It said "Bliss, you don't know me but
I'm a huge fan of you guys
The thing is I got cancer
And I'm fighting to stay alive
I'm at the hospital and it would mean the world to me
If you could come say hi"
It made me think, damn
There's a magic in the moment you put on those headphones
And no matter what you're going through
If only for a second that drama let's go
And let's your brain shift
Until it's painless
Sometimes you just gotta know you're not alone
There's people going through the same shit
Because when that rain hits
And you've entered the jungle
And you're lost in the dark
Those speakers will glow like the light end of the tunnel
And that black cloud

That follows you around like day and night
This pierce like a ray of light (Yes)
I've seen it fuck around, straight savin' lives
And ain't that something man
Shit, that's humbling
Yeah, my stress reliever
'Cause sometimes we all need a breather
So I got to the hospital
Walked in and he got a grin
I said, "If you ever feel alone, put your headphones on
And know you always got a friend"

I'll always be there for you
Oooooooh
Even when you are blue
Oooooooh
I'll always be there for you
Oooooooh
Even when you are blue
Oooooooh

I'll always be, I'll always be
I'll always be, I'll always be
I'll always be, I'll always be
I'll always be there for
There for, there for
There for you
Be, be, there for you
Be, be, be there for you
Be, be, be there for you
For you, for you, for you
For you, for you, for you
For you, for you, for you
