

Hoops

Bliss n Eso

Blood stains won't make it matter
Got good things
Got you
Hoops and everything
Get back
Never get back too soon

Yeah check it
When I met her man
I thought I was in heaven y'all
Never thought I'd find a girl ticking every box huh
Man the vibe is electric y'all
So drunk in love it's like I'm high off methanol
Huh huh huh

But you know the devil's repertoire
Is acting like an angel with fake feathers on
But pull 'em off you 'gone see the real leopard spots
A few drinks she's a mother fucking wrecking ball

Swinging through our Garden of Eden
It's raining penny drops
But it's like I don't even see 'em
It's like I'm Fetty Wap
Turn a blind eye when she's throwing daggers at my heart
Cutting me and pushing in the lemon salt

My friends say
Look at the way she plays you dog
She just hops up on the breakfast bar
Nothing but a necklace on
Making you forget it all
And just like that you bounce back like a tennis ball

She got you in the hoop going round the bend
How many times you gone back
I lost count man
Shit
You keep sweeping it under the rug
Just look in front of your couch man
It's like a fucking mountain
Bouncing
Drop top speeding down love lane
Without a damn thing on her but the sun rays
She's like my drug so I'm cleaning off the blood stains
Like it ain't nothing
Fuck this is nuts mane

Blood stains won't make it matter
Got good things
Got you
Hoops and everything
Get back

Blood stains make confusing patterns
They lead me to you

Hoops and everything
Get back
Never get back too soon

In a perfect storm
Chilling in my raincoat
The sky always falls on my rainbows
And I try to always find my way home
But I'm fighting
Yeah I'm dizzy cuz I know the ledge
I feel like everything I've written goes over heads
At the cross roads
Do we follow our own trails?
Or watch this snake swallow it's own tail?

Hell nah
I'm a trick my enemy
I ain't tripping
I'm a hit em with that big dick energy
I know who you are so I'm a keep it G
Every time I got to war it's always me vs me
See
The man in the mirror
He's a renegade
So I made a promised to myself that I would never break
To be better and never let us get lead astray
That's why I battle with my shadow nearly everyday

And I don't wanna be stuck doing the same damn shit
This pain and paint come from the same canvas
And this Jekyll and Hyde just won't let me be
So I slapped my ego with some LSD

Yeah and I ain't never gonna let you down
I'm walking out to the lights with head up proud
There ain't nothing these motherfuckers gonna tell me now
I'm playing one-on-one with myself to a sell out crowd

Say it on the telephone
Say it in my head (Say it in my head)
Say it in my head (Say it in my head)
Say it in my head
Awww yeah

Writing down all the things gone wrong (Gone wrong)
And the ink ran red (And the ink ran red)
And the ink ran red (And the ink ran red)
And the ink ran red

Blood stains won't make it matter
Got good things
Got you
Hoops and everything
Get back, never get back too soon

Get back, never get back too soon
Get back, never get back too soon
Get back, never get back
Get back, never get back
Get back, never get back too soon
Get back, never get back too soon
Yes, it's true

Hoops and everything
Get back, never get back

Too soon
Too soon
Too soon
Too soon
Too soon
