

An Eye For A Diamond

Blitz Kids

Lover leave your heart at the door
This place was meant for for ill intent and predators who crave the scent
Lover this is no place for sober minds

As fingers scratch and markers match, this night was your way so to snatch
a body for a feast on the floor
There's no way of telling who's who's
Only smelling the rags from the riches and diamonds uncut.

Did i miss midnight?
I need someone to show me around
This wolf needs a little sugar and spice, ya know?
I'm cloak and dagger, say your goodnights
My ears cement your pounding heart.
I'm serenaded from afar
and i st-st-st-stutter as our hearts interweave.
Lover there's a wolf at your door
Another body for a feast on the floor
My taste buds compelling and overly dwelling on my disillusion,
I'm ready to dine
Did i miss midnight?
I need someone to show me around
This wolf needs a little sugar to bite,
to let his hair down

Take your turn in love,take your turn in love,
Take your turn in love,your turn in love.
Take your turn and love.
Take your turn in love,take your turn in love,
Take your turn in love,your turn in love.
Take your turn and love.

Temptress Temptress, why do you leave me...
Distressed Distressed, all in a backless dress.
Temptress Temptress, we make each other a conquest...
Temptress Temptress, so now it's all out of context.

We(we) were(were) wrong(wrong), our(our)
hearts are made of honey, they're gold but always running
hearts are made of honey, they're gold but always running
We(we) were(were) wrong(wrong), our(our)
hearts are made of honey, they're gold but always running hearts are made of honey, they're gold but always running away

Take your turn in love,take your turn in love,
Take your turn in love,your turn in love.
Take your turn and love.
Take your turn in love,take your turn in love,
Take your turn in love,your turn in love.
Take your turn and love.
