

I Don't Need You

Blitz

I just don't know what to say
And you don't listen anyway
Can't you see, are you so dumb ?
I only want you came

I don't need you

You look well an half-past ten
But soon I'll be so straight again
Girl I wish you'd understand
I don't want to hold your hand

I don't need you

Don't you cry you know the crack
You know I don't want you back
Maybe once you were nice
But it's no fun to do it twice
