

All Across This Land

Blitzen Trapper

Welcome to Earth my son, you're here just in time
There's so much to learn, so many ways you can shine, yeah
'Cause love is forever, but forever ain't long, oh
It runs like a dirt road and it ends like a song, yeah

And all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land

Welcome to Earth my son, take a look all around There's billions of folks like you, making all kinds of sounds, oh
'Cause this life is a feeling like a hole in your hand, yeah
But love ain't no feeling, man, it's just a rock you can stand on

And all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land
Yeah, and all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land

Welcome my one true love
Welcome my one true love
Welcome

And all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land
And all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land
And all my trails, won't you take my hand
Gonna raise it up all across this land
