

Asleep for Days

Blitzen Trapper

I've been asleep for days
Won't everyone be amazed when I wake up
And I wake up for you
Yeah for you

When I wake up
Things will be clearer
'Cause it's been over a year
Yeah a year

I've been asleep so long
Feels right but I know it's wrong
So I call you
But you're not where I thought that you would be

Your roommate says you hitchhiked out to the sea
To the sea tonight

When I woke up
Things were all weird
'Cause it's been over a year
Yeah a year

Should I go back to bed?
Maybe just
Try and remember the things she said
So very long ago

On that windy night
I was so young
But now that I know which road she's on

Now I find myself out hitching a ride
Oh ride tonight

I'm gonna find her
Yeah I'm gonna find her
I'm gonna find her

I've been asleep for days
Won't everyone be amazed when I wake up
And I wake up for you
Yeah for you

When I wake up
When I wake up
When I wake up
When I wake up

When I wake up
When I wake up
When I wake up
When I wake up
