

Forever Pt. 2

Blitzen Trapper

Hey, hey what time is it? Hey
No, I don't see what time it is Shit, this shit makes you feel like you're dying
He he, it's the truth
It's like you're being struck by lightning
Like you're dying [?]

"Never let me go," she said from the backseat Lookin' through the eyes of God the world seems such a strange thing
But will you ever love me the way I love you
Leavin' time is lost and rollin' stones will roll forever

(Ooh...)
(Forever)
(Ooh)
(Forever)

Yeah, I found you in that rundown bar
I was just a young kid in the city, livin' in my sister's car
But that first time that I caught your eyes
I knew the worlds would be collidin' and the stars fall from th e sky
