

Futures & Folly

Blitzen Trapper

Scattered applause the footlights fade
Should I refrain and act my age
Futures and folly fill each page
The color of change
The voice of a boy and a girl on a stage
The words are arranged
Like birds in a cage

Oh, my love
I compare to a cloudless rain
Burn away all the ride and the fog remains

If I could give you one sure clue
Give up your pride and your handstands, too
You're such a close and a timeless child
So don't try to hide, don't break your stride, oh oh oh

Oh, my love
I compare to a cloudless rain
Burn away all the ride and the fog remains

So don't try to hide, don't break your stride, oh oh oh
