

Love Live On

Blitzen Trapper

Someone take the wheel
My eyes are gettin' heavy baby
Won't you take the wheel right now
We've been drivin' like the devil ain't no rest for the wicked
If they catch us will our love live on
Or will we be too far gone

I met you in your brother's car
I caught a ride up to the city
Hadn't planned to go that far
But, from the first time that I caught your eye
I knew the worlds would be collidin' and the stars fall from the sky
For you and I, this time

We had no plan only young and love
We stole your old man's truck
And then your mother's checkbook from her purse
Took the highway where the sun don't shine
Through the oak trees and the pines
The white lines race across the Earth

And I'm sayin' someone take the wheel
My eyes are gettin' heavy baby
Won't you take the wheel right now
We've been drivin' like the devil ain't no rest for the wicked
If they catch us will our love live on
Or will we be too far gone

So I killed the headlights
Drip down through the trees
You're asleep against the window dreamin' dreams I'll never see
Slip that bag of black tar from my jeans
Gettin' wasted, lost and lonely from the west coast to the east

And I'm sayin' someone take the wheel
My eyes are gettin' heavy baby
Won't you take the wheel right now
We've been drivin' like the devil ain't no rest for the wicked
If they catch us will our love live on
(Love live on, love live on, love live on)
We've been drivin' like the devil ain't no rest for the wicked
If they catch us will our love live on
(Love live on, love live on, love live on)
We've been drivin' like the devil ain't no rest for the wicked
If they catch us will our love live on, yeah
