

Sadie

Blitzen Trapper

Sadie, make her stay
If only for another day
Shoulder blades and sunlight
It never seems to feel right

'Cause, Sadie, I
I can never change, yeah
I can never change
For to change is to allow the plow to rearrange the wreckage of our hearts, our hearts

Sadie, what's the score
Write it above the door
Sadness rides along
The road we're travelin' on

'Cause, Sadie, I
I can never change, yeah
Oh, I can never change, yeah
I can never change

So take your own advice
You'd better think twice when you find your love is gone
And like the sun it waits for none
I know its true, but I don't have a clue
Of what you want me to do, oh

So, Sadie, make a stand
If only for another weekend
The stage is swept, the props all gone
And I'm left here with nothing but this cheap love song

'Cause, Sadie, I
I can never change, yeah
I can never change, yeah
I can never change, yeah
I can never change, yeah
For to change is to allow the plow to rearrange the wreckage of our hearts, our hearts
