

Stolen Hearts

Blitzen Trapper

Stolen hearts
Stolen hearts
Runnin' wild out in the dark
May you find yourself a love to set you free-yeah

Stolen hearts
Runnin' 'round
Sometimes love don't make a sound
It just robs you blind and leaves you on your knee

Now if I traded in all my yesterdays
For a shiny new heart and some hell to pay
Would the world turn cold, turn it's back on me
'Cause it's a fool who tries to be

These stolen hearts
Stolen hearts
Runnin' wild out in the dark
May you find yourself a love to set you free

Stolen hearts
Runnin' 'round
Sometimes love don't make a sound
It just robs you blind and leaves you on your knee-yeah

Well there's a rattlin' in my bones at night
Like the ruts in the road in a hurried flight
Heartache, toil will give you second-side
If you've got the kind of eyes to see

These stolen hearts
Stolen hearts
Runnin' wild out in the dark
May you find yourself a love to set you free

Stolen hearts
Runnin' 'round
Sometimes love don't make a sound
It just robs you blind and leaves you on your knee-yeah

Yeah, stolen hearts
Runnin' 'round
Sometimes love don't make a sound
It just robs you blind and leaves you on your knees yeah
