

Ashes to Ashes

Blood On The Dance Floor

You'll rise up from the ashes
A fire set by those who wish to see you fail
But your heart will prevail
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down with the hateful words they spew
Don't you let them get to you

Don't be ashamed to be broken
The pain will make you stronger
Keep fighting, you're a survivor
Right by your side, ghost rider

Give silence to their opinions
They stay below, you rise above
They exaggerate their importance
To my heart, to my art

You'll rise up from the ashes
A fire set by those who wish to see you fail
But your heart will prevail
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down with the hateful words they spew
Don't you let them get to you

The suffering made me harder
The pain will grow you stronger
Forgive yourself for staying longer
And from this hell you are forged a fighter

In memory of all your hatred
The chaos you created
Soon you'll be forgotten
And buried by my success

You'll rise up from the ashes
A fire set by those who wish to see you fail
But your heart will prevail
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down with the hateful words they spew
Don't you let them get to you

Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down

Burn the bridges down
Burn the bridges down
So they can't cross to you tonight
Burn the bridges down
Burn the bridges down
For the warmth, for the light

You'll rise up from the ashes
A fire set by those who wish to see you fail
But your heart will prevail
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down with the hateful words they spew
Don't you let them get to you

Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
Ashes to ashes
They all fall down
