Blood On The Dance Floor

Hello my goddesses and wolves
You're dripping with suspense
And baby I self turned dying pleasure
We got that feel that I softly kill

Shake it like a revolution on the dance floor
Electrifying revelation, we will shock you to the core
We were built for seduction, an appetite for destruction
Edge of ill repute with anticipation, feel the pleasure of my devastation

Welcome to my Frankenstein, all dressed up and ready to die
Say hello to oblivion, resurrected and come inside
Oh, you're poor pretty creature, [?] for yourself and my teacher
Sit back, relax, swallow the leader, I'll be doer, you'll be the dreamer

Let's play a game
Sins of the flesh
Where we can be in paradise
Close your eyes
Forget the rest
And start to see
Imagination running free
Let's play a game
