

Frankenstein + The Bride

Blood On The Dance Floor

Take love
And multiply it by infinity
And take it to the depths of forever
And you would still only have a glimpse
Of how I feel for you

I was created from spare parts (from spare parts)
A mad man's brains and a loving man's heart (loving man's heart)
You took my breath away
When I saw you on that day
One look into her eyes
Can kickstart a deadman's heart

You leave me electrified
Your love brings me back to life

It's alive, it's alive
This burning love deep inside
I'll be your bride,
You'll be my Frankenstein
You and I
'Til we die
Our hearts will always survive
Oh monster
My monster
The only one who sees me

I didn't ever mean to make you cry
When I saw you I felt so terrified (so terrified)
Sudden life and monsters by my side
Well, can't you see how it looked through my eyes (through my eyes)

You leave me electrified
Your love brings me back to life

It's alive, it's alive
This burning love deep inside
I'll be your bride
You'll be my Frankenstein
You and I
'Til we die
Our hearts will always survive

I need you
You need me
You totally complete me
Oh monster
My monster
The only one who sees me

Save me from my solitude
Say you want me with you
Where you are, I am too
Love me, this I ask of you

This burning love deep inside
I'll be your bride,

You'll be my Frankenstein
You and I
'til we die
Our hearts will always survive
Oh monster my monster
The only one that sees me

(woah-oh-oh)
(woah-oh-oh)
(woah-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

(woah-oh-oh)
(woah-oh-oh)
(woah-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)

The only one that sees me for who I truly am
