

Love Sucks

Blood On The Dance Floor

You used to hold me tight all night long
You used to tell me you'd never leave me alone
You used to kiss me on my lips
I've never felt like this

And now you stay out
All night, you sleep all day
You're never with me
It's like you've gone away
You've got something on your
Bloody lips to say

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

I see you're hanging out with different guys
But you know this comes as no surprise
You asked me for one last kiss
Under the lunar eclipse

I turned you down with a stiff ass no
I pushed you away
But you just wouldn't go
So wipe away those vampire tears
And make yourself disappear

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

I just want you gone away
I just want you gone away

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall

Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love sucks
(Love sucks)
It really sucks

You used to hold me tight all night long
You used to tell me you'd never leave me alone
You used to kiss me on my lips
I've never felt like this
