

My Gift & My Curse

Blood On The Dance Floor

Come with me
And take my hand
I'll lead you to
A wonderland
A world that's free
Of hate and lies
Where beauty lives
And evil dies
Relax your mind
And close your eyes
Heaven's what
You visualize
(I'll take you there)

My wings of gold
Kill all despair
Just trust in me
I'll take you there
(Trust in me I'll take you there)
I'll take you there
(I'll take you there)

Hold your head up high
They would kill to see you fail
Evil lurks in the shadows
Just waiting to prevail
Every sinner has a future
Every saint has a past
Gotta keep the torch burning
So the message will last
Like a phoenix rising up
From a pile of burning ashes
Can't give up
No matter how those haters try to trash us
I will use my voice
Like this world's my motherfucking classroom
Touching hearts, saving lives
Warding off the black doom

Why do I wear myself down to nothing
Would you let me widdle myself into something
Carving me down to the absolute bitterness
Wipe away the jealousy, I got nothing left
I'm chewing on what's left of my silent tongue
From holding it back, for way to fucking long
I've been playing by the rules, I've lost myself in the game
I fear the person I use to be will never be the same

It all comes back to you, everything you put me through
It all comes back to you, everything you put me through
You can drag me to hell, you can curse me with spells
But I'm damned, I'm damned, like an angel that fell
My gift, my gift sent from heaven above
Is meant to save all the fans I love
This is my gift and my curse

(You'll understand when I'm gone)

(Arch angel number 7)

This is my gift and my curse, till I'm dead in a hearse
My words will stain this fucking earth
Until I'm free from this sex lust fucking berserk
I can't escape this wicked curse
Like a vamp to the neck, like a wolf to the flesh
I'm curse, I'm curse, I'm fucking dead
My gift, my gift, the only thing left
I can't escape this wretched fate

Come with me
A wonderland
Where beauty lives
You visualize
(I'll take you there)

My wings of gold
Kill all despair
I'll take you there
(Trust in me I'll take you there)
I'll take you there
(I'll take you there)
