

My Gift & My Curse

Blood On The Dance Floor

[Intro: Dahvie Vanity]

Today I died and I'm up in heaven
Looking down on the world, ark angel number seven
I was sent to earth with a mission to complete
My memories remain bittersweet
Messenger with a double duty verse
It's my legacy, my gift
And my curse...

[Verse 1: Dahvie Vanity & JayyVon]

Hold your head up high they will kill to see you feel
Evil lurks in the shadows just waiting to prevail
Every sinner has a future, every saint has a past
Gotta keep the torch burning so the message will last
Like a phoenix rising up from a pile of burning ashes
Can't give up, no matter how those haters try to trash us
I will use my voice like this world's my motherfuckin' classroom
Touching hearts, saving lives, warning of the black doom

[Pre-Chorus: Dahvie Vanity]

Come with me and take my hand
I'll lead you to a wonderland
A world that's free of hate and lies
Where beauty lives and evil dies
Relax your mind and close your eyes
Heaven's what you visualize
My wings of gold, kill all despair
Just trust in me, I'll take you there
I'll take you there

[Chorus: JayyVon & Dahvie Vanity]

This is my gift and my curse
'Til I'm dead in a hearse
My words will stain this fucking Earth!
Until I'm free from this sex lust succubus nurse
I can't escape this wicked curse!
Like a vamp to the neck, like a wolf to the flesh
I'm curse, I'm curse, I'm fucking dead!
My gift, my gift the only thing left
I can't escape this wretched fate!

[Verse 2: JayyVon & Dahvie Vanity]

Why do I wear myself down to nothing?
Would you let me widdle myself into something?
Carving me down to the absolute bitterness
Wipe away the jealousy, I got nothing left
I'm chewing on what's left of my silent tongue
From holding it back for way too fucking long
I've been playing by the rules, I've lost myself in the game
I fear the person I used to be will never be the same

[Pre-Chorus: Dahvie Vanity]

Come with me and take my hand
I'll lead you to a wonderland
A world that's free of hate and lies
Where beauty lives and evil dies
Relax your mind and close your eyes

Heaven's what you visualize
My wings of gold, kill all despair
Just trust in me, I'll take you there
I'll take you there

[Chorus: JayyVon & Dahvie Vanity]
This is my gift and my curse
'Til I'm dead in a hearse
My words will stain this fucking Earth!
Until I'm free from this sex lust succubus nurse
I can't escape this wicked curse!
Like a vamp to the neck, like a wolf to the flesh
I'm curse, I'm curse, I'm fucking dead!
My gift, my gift the only thing left
I can't escape this wretched fate!

[Bridge: Dahvie Vanity & JayyVon]
It all comes back to you
Everything you put me through
It all comes back to you!
Everything you put me through!
You can drag me to Hell, you can curse me with spells
I'm damned, I'm damned, like an angel that fell!
My gift, my gift sent from Heaven above
Is meant to save all the fans I love

[Chorus: JayyVon & Dahvie Vanity]
This is my gift and my curse
'Til I'm dead in a hearse
My words will stain this fucking Earth!
Until I'm free from this sex lust succubus nurse
I can't escape this wicked curse!
Like a vamp to the neck, like a wolf to the flesh
I'm curse, I'm curse, I'm fucking dead!
My gift, my gift the only thing left
I can't escape this wretched fate!

[Outro: Dahvie Vanity]
You'll understand when I'm gone...
