

The Climax

Blood On The Dance Floor

A dash of danger, strike the match to ignite
Slightly illusive, a fantasy come to life
A touch of madness, going wild for the night
Imagination makes it harder to resist
Masturbation, got yourself into a twist
Confidence the power of my instrument
Opulence, next dimension science fiction

I offer you a total release from the limitations of your life
A revelation, you're oppressed
Let me bring back the sparkle in your eye

The higher we rise, the harder we fall
The deeper inside, the stronger the call
Gaining control, with no words at all
We come alive, when death feels so small

Feel the pressure, I'm about to explore
Temperature rising, losing all my self control
Gripped by passion, locked and ready to unload
Infinite adventure, give yourself to pleasure
Forget the past and future, I'll be ythe dreamy treasure
I'll chill, thrill, fulfill, beyond any measure
We're climbing higher

I offer you a total release from the limitations of your life
A revelation, you're oppressed
Let me bring back the sparkle in your eye

The higher we rise, the harder we fall
The deeper inside, the stronger the call
Gaining control, with no words at all
We come alive, when death feels so small

The higher we rise, the harder we fall
The deeper inside, the stronger the call
Gaining control, with no words at all
We come alive, when death feels so small

Feel the pressure...
Temperature rising...
Feel the pressure...
Temperature rising...

Let me bring back...
Do you know...
Let me bring back...
The sparkle in your eyes

The higher we rise, the harder we fall
The deeper inside, the stronger the call
Gaining control, with no words at all
We come alive, when death feels so small

Death feels so small...
