

Unforgiven

Blood On The Dance Floor

You've got your secrets locked inside, you've got them hidden so well I'm gonna break down all your walls and find out what you won't tell

I know you think you're the coined slogan of the master disguise Let's go right through into the bullshit, I see all of your lies

I draw my guard, you play your card, you dug a hole in my skin You cut me deep and watched me bleed while you maintained innocence

Fixing your lies, your filthy lies, the truth is here on you face You keep in mind that I'm not blind, my memories can't be erased

You took your love and wasted all of it
On someone, who could care less for you

I give my word,
everything I said
Came directly from my heart,
it's true

Don't think I won't forget the things you've done
Don't think you won't regret forbidding fun
I've drawn my love with you in the sand
Right now I know you are the one, who is unforgiven

Unforgiven!
Unforgiven!

You walked me to the gates of heaven, now I'm burning in hell Took something pure and true, and turning into something to sell

Can you live with yourself, just think about what you have done This is about the game that you play not the game that you won

You think you're slick but here's the trick I'll always know more than you know You choose your fate, whose masquerade is done when you walk out the door

Don't justify your bullshit lies, it's so obvious that you're fake Who's fooling who? I know the truth, this drama is more than I can take

You took your love and
wasted all of it
On someone, who could
care less for you

I give my word,
everything I said
Came directly from my heart,
it's true

Don't think you won't regret forbidding fun
I've drawn my love with you in the sand
Right now I know you are the one, who is unforgiven

You had your fun with all that was forbidden
You are the one who is unforgiven

GO!

You took your love and
wasted all of it
On someone, who could
care less for you

I give my word,
everything I said
Came directly from my heart,
it's true

Let it go just let go You'll be fine on your own (2x)

Unforgiven!
Unforgiven!
