

Dark & Handsome

Blood Orange

Nothing lasts forever, and I told you
Everything you need to know is not true
Lyin' to myself because it hurts you (Hurts you)
Waitin' for the simple chance to come through (Come through)
I've been known to hide within my own walls (Own walls)
Jewelry in my ice so that I don't fall (Don't fall)
Onto higher prices, and escape with (Escape with)
All my ice intact, but who am I to kid?
Pound of flesh, and yeah, I'm still kickin'
Sold my place and just play my own stupid
Fears because the past and future scare me
Ridin' out to Venice with a nosebleed
I stood before the waves and prayed to be clean (Be clean)
But dirty in my mind, my gold turned green
This is everything you ever wanted (Wanted)
Cryin' for the ones I lost in '18 ('18)
IG3, 2014, unhappy
Nothing ever makes you get past it
33 and still can't stop thinking (Thinking)
Find a place and I keep on spendin' (Spendin')
Shower my beliefs with ice melting

Losin' touch of everything I know
Prayin' for my heart to turn to stone
Bandana tied around my broken skull
Ice around my wrist, my touch is cold
Losin' touch of everything I know
Prayin' for my heart to turn to stone
Bandana tied around my broken skull
Ice around my wrist, my touch is cold

Don't be actin' dumb, cookie's gonna crumble
Wipin' up the crumbs, I do this shit casual
Happens all the time, plus I'm dark and handsome
Shit, token by design, it's a tantrum

Losin' touch of everything I know
Prayin' for my heart to turn to stone
Bandana tied around my broken skull
Ice around my wrist, my touch is cold

Don't be actin' dumb, cookie's gonna crumble
Wipin' up the crumbs, I do this shit casual
Happens all the time, plus I'm dark and handsome
