Wherever you are now, hahaha

I walked on sometimes
I wanted all times
A knife in my side
Everything I need in my heart
Don't let me be quiet
I'll ruin my life
I felt your life like
Everything I need in my heart (Oh)
Chilly and I'm fine
I heat on your fire
Try and light things I require
Everything I need in my heart (Oh)
Don't let me be quiet (Oh)
I'll ruin my life
I felt your life like
Everything I need in my heart (Oh)

I've never felt alone
I've never felt so cold, so cold

Chilly and I'm fine
I heat on your fire
Try and light things alight
Everything I need for my heart (Oh)
Don't let me be quiet
I ruined your life
Felt like it's your fire
Everything I need's in my heart (Oh)

I've never felt alone
I've never felt so cold, so cold

Now here's a word from Octavia St. Laurent
The queen with the most Hey, I'm extremely sensitive. I love myself a lot, it's who I am. I'm beautiful, I'm talented and there's no-one out there who can stand n ext to me. And if they can, well, hahaha
