

Said No

Blood Orange

[?] you left me in the cold
Sat alone, silence [?]
Come away leave me with this ox
Food for all, you're never without thought

Once again the hunter is bone dry
Now you left you always make me cry
Somewhere else, one is all I know
Coming home, breaking all your walls

In the corner of this suburb I am like you

Helium performance isn't all and
Choose your team and stick with it
I know that's mean
Everything you want is Waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting
It's waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting
It's waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, hmm

In the corner of this suburb I am like you
