

Creatures of the Dark Realm

Bloodbound

We're the lonely eyes of grey
And the silence in their hallways
We gaze the realm we're guardians
When the wheel of time begun
And the bloodline sail away
The serpents eye before you

In the memory of the fallen ones
And the souls we left behind

Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
When they come at night and you're locked in their sight
And the shiver run down your spine
Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
When we pray at night and the moon is alight
And the darkness rise in my soul
Creatures of the dark
Of the dark

When you lay me down to sleep
By the shadows I will linger
My glimmer eyes will haunt you

In the memory of the fallen ones
And the souls we left behind

Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
When they come at night and you're locked in their sight
And the shiver run down your spine
Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
When we pray at night and the moon is alight
And the darkness rise in my soul
Creatures of the dark

Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark realm
When they come at night and you're locked in their sight
And the shiver run down your spine
Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark
Creatures of the dark
Of the dark realm
Creatures of the dark (creatures)
Creatures of the dark (in darkness)
Creatures of the dark (forever)
Of the dark realm
When we pray at night and the moon is alight
And the darkness rise in my soul
Creatures of the dark

We are the creatures

Of the dark realm
