Flames of Purgatory

Bloodbound

You're halfway to nowhere The memories are deep inside your mind You're in Purgatory You're looking for danger The ashes of doom is what you'll find You're in Purgatory

Sacrifice the sacred hearts of stone And send them into Satan's jaws on fire

In the flames of purgatory On the way to hell There's a tale only dead men tell In the flames of purgatory Burn inside the spell There's a tale only dead men tell

You're heading for fire The heart of the flames upon your face You're in Purgatory You're meeting the maker The moment has come to leave this place You're in Purgatory

Sacrifice the sacred hearts of stone And send them into Satan's jaws on fire

In the flames of purgatory On the way to hell There's a tale only dead men tell In the flames of purgatory Burn inside the spell There's a tale only dead men tell
