

Odin's Prayer

Bloodbound

Into the sea
We're riding the storm
No sign of land
Our longboats perform
We're all alone
No stars in the sky
Into the vast forever

Raise your sails
Reveal your signs
Distant shores emerge
Unconquered lands

Hail my all-father
Come sit by my side
One eyed and wise
My fate you can't hide
Show me your wisdom
The stories of old
All of my dreams unfold
Odin's prayer

Out in the void
The night sky explode
No sight of land
We carry our load
We're all alone
The storm rages on
In this we're all together

Raise your sails
Reveal your signs
Distant shores emerge
Unconquered lands
Here we come

Hail my all-father
Come sit by my side
One eyed and wise
My fate you can't hide
Show me your wisdom
The stories of old
All of my dreams unfold
Odin's prayer

In the halls of the last kingdom
On the walls fire and flame
By the sword and the shield give me strength
Hail to the god of thunder
In the night fires are burning
Son of Bor, father of Thor
By the word hear the wise whisper
Hail to the king of Asgard

Raise your sails
Reveal your signs
Distant shores emerge

Unconquered lands

Hail my all-father
Come sit by my side
One eyed and wise
My fate you can't hide
Show me your wisdom
The stories of old
All of my dreams unfold
Odin's prayer
