

For You To Be Safe

Bloodpit

They lie about the pain
Thru on their empty faces
And they stay awake
For you to be safe

Saints keep breaking
But entirely holding their own
Never giving in

They've hidden all their sins
Deep down within
Undergone everything
For you to be safe

Saints keep breaking
But entirely holding their own
Never giving in
Gods forsaken
And doomed to bear their stone

And even if they find
What divides them from grace?
They keep on breaking
And even if they were
Reprieved from their pain
They keep on breaking
Still pure in their hearts in their acclaims

Saints keep breaking
But entirely holding their own
Never giving in
Gods forsaken
And doomed to bear their stone
Always believing
They keep on breaking
Never-ending
Until the halo's gone
