

The Price To Pay

Bloodpit

You said I've gone astray so far
And the price to pay is me
Your life is a dive for one
Can't you see that your price is me?

refrain:
Freedom, I'm hooked on your call
Whatever you can take, whatever you can give
I fall

You said I've chained my self in life
That's taking our time
And the vision blinded your mind
Can't you see that your price is me?

Again I face the things I replaced
The truth is right before me but I can't have it all
