

Linda Blair

Bloodsucking Zombies from Outer Space

"Well then, let's introduce ourselves. I'm Damien Karras."

"And I'm the Devil!"

You once really gave me the creeps
Endless nights, I could not sleep
Seeing your head spinning around
Turned my whole world upside down
You sent shivers down my spine
I knew my heart was no longer mine
A puppy love, so innocent and pure
I wanted us to be together
Just me, the Devil and you
Linda Blair, I saw your face somewhere
Was it in my head, or was it really there?
Linda Blair, my favourite scare
No matter what they say about a love affair
You said their mother sucks cocks in Hell
And what you did was that crucifix I remember well
Innocent, beaten, and possessed
As Regan you were simply the best!
Your career went down but And I will always stand by you
A puppy love, so innocent and pure
I wanted us to be together

Just me, the Devil and you
Linda Blair, I saw your face somewhere
Was it in my head, or was it really there?
Linda Blair, my favourite scare
No matter what they say about a love affair

"Did you do that? Do it again."

"In time."

"No, now."

"In time. But mirabile dictu, don't you agree?"

Your career went down but And I will always stand by you
A puppy love, so innocent and pure
I wanted us to be together
Just me, the Devil and you
Linda Blair, I saw your face somewhere
Was it in my head, or was it really there?
Linda Blair, my favourite scare
No matter what they say about a love affair
Linda Blair, I saw your face somewhere
Was it in my head, or was it really there?
Linda Blair, my favourite scare
No matter what they say about a love affair
