

Born Wild

Blossoms

They say it's a phase, I've been going for so long
I feel so wrong but boys must be strong
You'd have a shock if I told you what I'm thinking of

Don't let me explain 'cause I'll be alright soon
Let's do everything in a rush, it's so cool
You'd have a shock if I told you what I'm thinking of

Ooh, born wild
Ooh, self love in time
You'll find we're born wild

For once I feel tired, just enough to sleep well
I watch the night fall from my mind's window
It's lonely in a way that I've never come across before

I spent the night dry but the drink it does more
The pain it crawls up through the cracks in the floor
Here on my own

Ooh, born wild
Ooh, self love in time
You'll find we're born wild

Ooh, born wild
Ooh, self love in time
You'll find we're born wild

You'll find we're born wild
You'll find we're born wild

Ohh-ohh-ohh...
