Falling For Someone

Blossoms

I was so tired and the sky was a grey
I'd spent a lifetime faking it through my days
But you led me back again
Think you corrected my emotional state
You picked it up and put it back into play
Kept me sheltered from the rain

Me and my life
(Don't break my fall)
You're one of a kind
(And through the storm)
Here I lay, lost in a moment, lost in a moment
When will I wake up? When will I wake up?
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone

So close I could touch it, too much to ignore
When I had nothing you brought everything and more
You are something that I'm sure
Swore I was losing but my faith you restored
Seems strange to think that there was anyone before
You're the one that I adore

Me and my life
(Don't break my fall)
You're one of a kind
(And through the storm)
Here I lay, lost in a moment, lost in a moment
When will I wake up? When will I wake up?
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone

Won't you heal the pain?
I'd run the fields with you
Won't you heal the pain?
I'd run the fields with you

Me and my life
(Don't break my fall)
You're one of a kind
(And through the storm)
Here I lay, lost in a moment, lost in a moment
When will I wake up? When will I wake up?
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone

Oh, oh, oh falling for someone
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone
Oh, oh, oh falling for someone
