

I Can't Stand It

Blossoms

There's a passage in my mind
The pocket starts of you
And all the things that come with emotional ties

Though memories do fade
This heavy heart inside of me
Hates that I said all those things to you then

I'd forget you if I could
I know I probably should be sleeping
Not thinking this through
But I can't stand it
I can't stand it

Fooling myself dry
You're like no other
Puts myself for some amnesia to keep me in line

Why do I fall in love
With the least bit of attention
I need some direction, affection in time

I'd forget you if I could
I know I probably should be sleeping
Not thinking this through
But I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it

When I was thinking of a plan
She sent the snow then took my hand
I shut you out, you changed my mind
The echoes fall beside the scenes where you would cry

I'd forget you if I could
I know I probably should be sleeping
Not thinking this through
But I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it

I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it
I can't stand it
