

Misery

Blossoms

You sting like poison vines
Thank God you found me
With sudden shock my feelings flock
I think I see her

Everything is okay
Wait on a stroke of faith

Sorry for the times we cried
Sorry all the while
Misery

Out on a moonlit street
I still think fondly
It thrills me then kills me
I'm an ass, I think I see her

Everything is mind games
Wait on a stroke of faith

Sorry for the times we cried
Sorry all the while
Misery

Are you missing me?
Misery
Are you missing me?
Wait by the back room for me

It's an eccentric name
The skies remind me
A starless night is all I need
I think I see her

Tell me what can we stay
I wait on a stroke of faith

Sorry for the times we cried
Sorry all the while
Misery
