Blouse

Are you one of us?
I don't want to tell you what
But I don't like to be afraid
Pink ship coming close
Thought a castle couldn't float
If I could I'd turn the wind
To send you away

Stop coming down here
Where you're not wanted
Over again
It's the same
In the wedge of love
Nobody's free from
Those hands that guide you
Over again
It's the same
It's Imperium

Thought a castle couldn't float
If I could I'd turn the wind
