

Trust Me

Blouse

Trust me, I'm the one who loves you
Trust me, I'm the one who dares
Trust me, I'm the one who loves you now
Trust me, I'm the one who dares
You're in every photograph;
It's the season of you
It's as if the hour glass had nothing left to prove
Trust me, I'm the one who knows you now
Trust me, I'm the one who's there
Trust me, I'm the one who knows you now
Trust me, I'm the one who cares
I knew you when you were down
And we made it better
It's beyond a fashion now; I'm tied up in you
I'd never turn down your request
(If you needed something)
I'd always treat you like a guest
(If you wanted me to)
You'd never have to explain
(When you felt something)
I'd always love you the same
