

Red Riding Blues

Blowsight

A dark day under a crumblin' sky
With all the dead treest complicates the try
A dark day under a crumblin' sky
With all the dead treest complicates the try
So come and get me

Come feel my aggravation
No need for complications
Here's the story about a big bad wolf,
Didn't care for anybody but a ladie's boobs
Feels like a celebration
And here's your invitation
Headline story on the TV news
So sing it loud now
A Red Riding Blues.

This beast gotta be somewhere around
She shakes, she doesn't make one sound
She sits down for only seconds few
While the shadow right behind her
Starts making a move

Come feel my aggravation
No need for complications
Here's the story about a big bad wolf,
Didn't care for anybody but a ladie's boobs
Feels like a celebration
And here's your invitation
Headline story on the TV news
So sing it loud now
A Red Riding Blues.

Caress this redhooded hottie
And make no further adieu
With teeth n' claws in her body
Oh don't you wish she was you?
This pain turns into a party
With invitations for two
She tries to scream for somebody
Oh don't you wish she was you?

Come feel my aggravation
No need for complications
Here's the story about a big bad wolf,
Didn't care for anybody but a ladie's boobs
Feels like a celebration
And here's your invitation
Headline story on the TV news
So sing it loud now
A Red Riding Blues.
