

Surprise

Blowsight

This can't be happening to me
I broke your chains and set you free
From all the "what do you want"s
From all the naughty ladies in the front
So don't waste my time
You can't make me scared
No explanation
No time to feel afraid to do your deeds
Drive her home and make her change your mind

What a surprise
The more I give to you the more I die
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive
The more I give to you the more I cry
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive

I'm pissed, I'm ready to explode
A human hand grenade with heavy load
I heard the "what-do-you-need"s a billion sorry babies we can't feed

So don't waste my time
You're gonna taste the anger
And find another solution now
So take my car
Drive her home
And make her change your mind

What a surprise
The more I give to you the more I die
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive
The more I give to you the more I cry
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive

Do you believe the walls crashing down?
Do you believe effects are bound to happen?
Do you believe the plague turns around?
Do you believe effects are bound to happen?
So don't waste my time

What a surprise
The more I give to you the more I die
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive
The more I give to you the more I cry
But instead of burning out i'll stay alive
